From the Editors

The darling buds of May are upon us and spring is sprunging all around.

It's not just the lambs bouncing around - check out the Sixties Revival Evening at the Village Hall in June.

If you're out for walk make sure to go down Fish Street to check out the world-famous (possibly) Goldhanger Weather Stone. You don't want to get caught out on your perambulations.

Film Club this month is Song Sung Blue so if you're a fan of Neil Diamond don't miss this one. It's about two musicians who form a Neil Diamond tribute band.

My ability to remember song lyrics from the '80s far exceeds my ability to remember why I walked into the kitchen.

The Reverend Frederick Gardner

The Reverend Gardner was the Rector for 43 years from 1893 to 1936 and was the last of the prosperous rectors to hold the “Perpetual Advowson” of the joint Goldhanger and Little Totham Benefice. He and his family purchased the Rectory, the surrounding Glebe land, the Parsonage and Rectory Cottage. Despite having motor neuron disease he was a great traveller and went at least twice as part of the team who went to Spitsbergen/Svalbard prospecting for gold ! He was well respected and of strong religious convictions, preaching from his wheelchair and writing in parish magazines with great passion. He lost his eldest son in the Great War and was largely responsible for funding what the East Anglian Daily Times described as “the impressive and noble War Memorial” in front of St Peters, and he donated the East window in All Saints Little Totham.

The Revd. Gardner was the last Rector to reside at the large Rectory in Church Street. This postcard shows the house in the early 1900s with his car at the front. After his death and WW-2 the house was re-named Goldhanger House and sold.

Some of the Revd. Gardner’s legacies...

26/00032 Land adjacent to 15 Fish Street Allowed

26/00034 13 Fish Street Allowed

Playing Field

A recent inspection of the Playing Field equipment had been undertaken and all necessary recommendations would be carried out in due course

Speed watch Group

The Monthly report had been received which stated that there had been 82 vehicles had been recorded doing over 35mph in a 30mph limit. This was mainly in Maldon Road. It was noted that circa 30% of the registrations that are sent to Essex police are not followed up. This is because the vehicles are registered outside of Essex. The Essex CSW team are campaigning to get Essex Police to change this.

Bus Shelter

The replacement of the missing/damaged bus stop shingles had been completed by Cllr Ellis

Assertion 10 Compliance – Section 1 of the AGAR

A draft website had been completed to apply with above and would go live asap. There will be new emails addresses for both the clerk and councillors in due course

Misc

The clerk advised that the national pay awards final offer 3.30% which was far less than the unions had requested and would now be reviewed by the unions and members as to whether to accept this

Next Meeting on the 13th May 2026

Monthly Ministry Letter for Parish Magazines – May 2026

May is a month full of festivals in the church calendar. For most of May this year we are still in the season of Easter, which comes to a joyful close on the day of Pentecost, when we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birthday of the Christian Church. Ten days earlier is Ascension Day, commemorating the final resurrection appearance of Jesus and his return to heaven.

Immediately before Ascension many churches keep Rogationtide. The word Rogation comes from the Latin “rogare”, meaning “to ask”. At Rogation we ask for God’s blessing on the land and pray for a fruitful harvest. Coming in spring, at the time of young animals and the vivid green growth of crops, Rogation links the new life we see all around us with the Christian celebration of resurrection and new life at Easter.

Traditionally the observance of Rogation has involved processions with prayers for the blessing of the land, often around parish boundaries – sometimes known as “beating the bounds”. More recently the scope of these prayers has been widened, often including prayers for the life of the local community; all the labour and activity that goes on there; and for good stewardship of the natural world. Rogation also provides an occasion for churches to unite in praying for God’s blessing across wider groups of parishes – not to mention a wonderful opportunity to share a walk, a meal and a time of worship together. The three Layer parishes, for example, will be marking Rogation Sunday once again on 10th May with a shared service, walking between Layer de la Haye and Layer Marney, via Layer Breton, stopping for prayer and refreshments at various points along the way.

This May one particular focus for prayer in our churches is the recruitment process that is currently underway for two new clergy to join our Team Ministry: a Team Rector who will have oversight of the new Team Ministry across all 18 parishes with particular responsibility for the Heathland Parishes (Tiptree with Tolleshunt Knights and Great Braxted, Messing, Inworth, Layer Marney and Layer Breton with Birch); and a Team Vicar who will look after the Beacon Parishes (Wickham Bishops with Little Braxted, Great Totham, Little Totham and Goldhanger). Please do join us in praying for everyone involved in the recruitment process, for the interviews taking place towards the end of May and in early June, and for the people God is calling to come and be part of the team here.

Whether or not you take part in a Rogation Service, May is a good time to get out and about and enjoy the beauty of the countryside in this lovely part of Essex. As you do so, whether on foot, by bicycle, or in a car, you might like to take a moment to give thanks for the many blessings God provides and to pray for God’s blessing on the places and people you pass along the way.

“A blessing is pure goodness. It is not just words: it has the power to accomplish good things in the lives of those who are blessed.” (Graham Dow)

Remember, Lord, your mercy and loving-kindness towards us.

Bless this good earth and make it fruitful.

Bless the labours of those who work on land and sea.

Bless our work and give us all things needed for our daily lives.

Bless our communities and our churches.

Bless the homes of our parishes and all who live within them.

Bless our common life and our care for our neighbour.

Grant us the grace always to rejoice in your love and care for us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Recipe of the month

Quick peanut and chilli noodles

Preparation time

Less than 30 minutes

Cooking time

Less than 10 minutes

Serves

Serves 2

Ingredients

- 100g dried wholewheat noodles
- salt

For the peanut sauce

- 50g peanut butter (around 3 tbsp)
- 1 tbsp grated fresh root ginger
- 1 tbsp sweet chilli sauce
- 2 tbsp tamari or soy sauce
- 1 lime, juice only

To garnish

- 2 spring onions, finely chopped
- 1 tbsp roasted salted peanuts, finely chopped (optional)

Method

1. Cook the noodles in a pan of boiling water with a generous pinch of salt for 6–7 minutes, or according to packet instructions, until tender.
2. Meanwhile, whisk all of the sauce ingredients together in a bowl, adding 4 tablespoons of water to loosen the sauce.
3. Drain the noodles, leaving a splash of water in the bottom of the pan. Add the peanut sauce, heat for a minute and toss through the noodles.
4. Garnish with chopped spring onions and peanuts, if using.
